GoldenTree is one of the largest independent asset managers specializing in corporate and structured credit, with primary offices in New York and London.

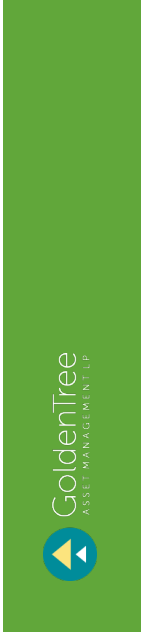

Over 8 weeks RS Response was tasked with the lighting redesign and electrical refurbishment of the first floor of their London premises, 33 Davis Street.

Using the highest quality feature lighting in the reception, Broker's cafe, boardrooms and breakout areas, RSR was able to accentuate the distinctive style of the offices' architecture.

This, combined with the use of cutting edge Dali dimming lighting controls and presence detection technology, gave the finance brokers office a contemporary and professional new feel.
