About HeliosX

HeliosX is a digital health company committed to transforming healthcare by making it more accessible, effective, and trustworthy for everyone.

Founded in 2013 by Dwayne D'Souza, the HeliosX group began with a vision to simplify healthcare, recognising that while other industries had embraced convenience and speed, healthcare remained slow and complicated. HeliosX remove barriers to care by providing seamless access to the medications people need—no trips to the doctor, no waiting in pharmacy lines, and no added complexity.

Our approach empowers customers to manage their health privately and conveniently. Supported by a team of registered doctors and pharmacists, every treatment decision is guided by expertise, ensuring our customers receive safe and reliable care they can trust. With over 500 dedicated team members, we continue to shape a future where healthcare is truly patient-centered, convenient, and effective.

Project Overview

Helios X required a complete fit-out of their 3600 SQM warehouse and office space, ensuring that both areas were equipped with high-quality finishes and systems.

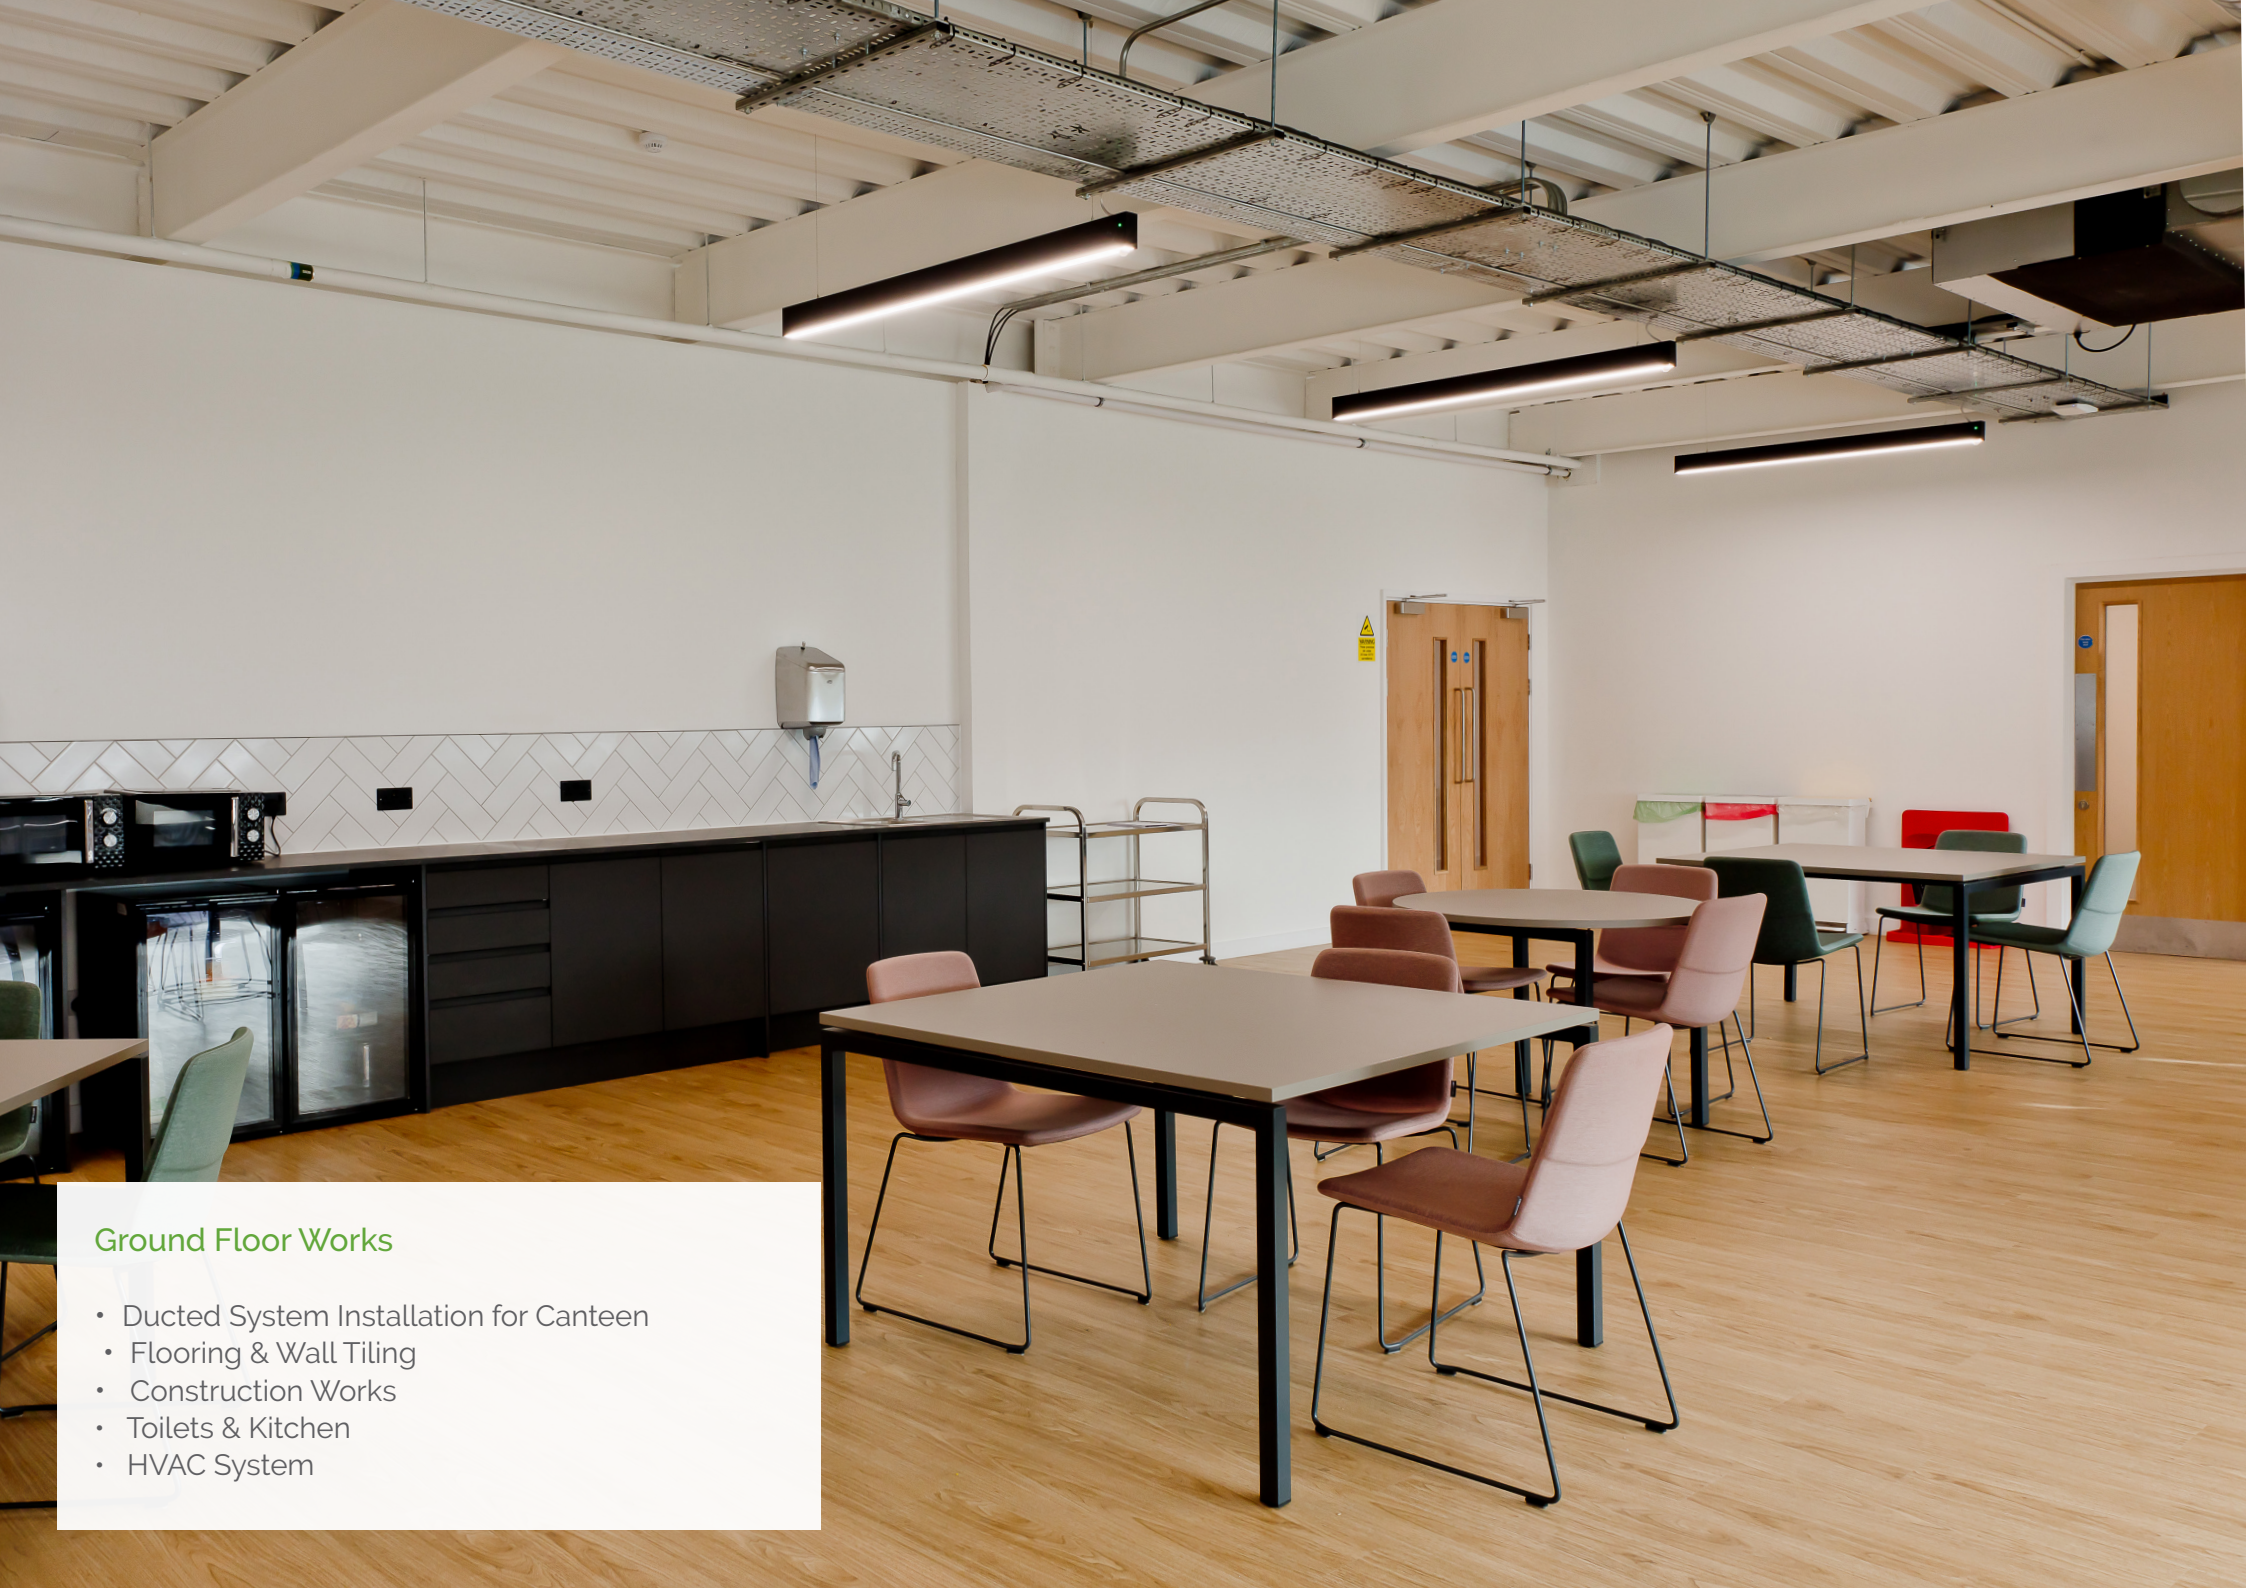

Our team meticulously planned and executed the project, delivering a workspace that meets the highest standards of functionality and comfort.

The HeliosX transformation was completed within 14 weeks from the initial design requirement. Work was finished to the highest standard, delivering a fully integrated and modern workspace.
